

THE COLUMBIA CENTER FOR INTERDISCIPLINARY
RESEARCH ON ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE DISPARITIES

CALL FOR PILOT PROPOSALS

$35,000 AWARDED FOR 1-YEAR OF ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE RESEARCH

DESCRIPTION OF PILOT:

CIRAD is accepting applications for its pilot project program. Projects may include primary data collection and/or secondary data analysis, and may leverage ADRD-related projects taking place at Columbia University Irving Medical Center or in New York City. A budget of up to $50,000 for applicants from Columbia University is possible.

Projects should focus on aspects of human research in ADRD, including diagnosis, biomarkers, risk and resilience factors, interventions and caregiving. Basic science projects may be considered if they have a translational potential in ADRD disparities.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ELIGIBILITY:

- Postdoctoral scientists/fellows, early or mid-career faculty.
- Must meet the NIH definition of underrepresented in biomedical research.
- Must be interested in Alzheimer's Disease and related dementias (ADRD) research.

DEADLINE: MONDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2021
